

Who.are.The.Impact?

The Impact was born from the union of 5 gifted musicians from various cultures creating an original sound deeply rooted in electric Jazz. In one hand, you can find a taste of fusion with Middle-Eastern music, specifically Israel folk music and powerful Flamenco vocal ornamentations. These individuals, hailing from five different countries and three continents, have come together to create a new musical journey: The Impact.

The.Band

Isabel Bermejo, born in Spain leads the band with her strong vocals and compositions using her voice in a very special way. She is able to go from soft and flexible lines to heavy screams. Isabel steps on stage like a warrior, pure musicality and character. Guitarist Michalis Michailidis hails from the seductive city of Thessaloniki, Greece, brings to the band a very unique sound thanks to his restless relationship with sounds and effects. This perfectly identifies his entire existence and his strong commitment to music. Madrid's contribution to the band is the drummer Javi Herrero whose beats never sound the same. His playing it's always energetic and risky, Javi has the ability to transmit his spirit with every sound. The mexican piano player Daniel Vadillo commands the passionate lines and harmonies on the piano. His sound is pure sensitivity and makes you dream far from the noise of the city. The double bass player from Austria, Johannes Fend, is, with no doubt, a musician with a lot to say. His creativity and strong sense of improvisation has no limits and will surprise you for sure.

The.EP

Stories - The first EP of the band released in January 2018 - as a small sample of its musical proposal, is a conceptual work in which four stories are told. These stories are located in different countries and times: Egypt, Israel, Spain and Greece. These stories tell the concerns and experiences of characters in past lives through melodies and words in Spanish and Ladino (Jewish Spanish).

Recorded as a live session and in a limited time to preserve spontaneity, this ep is a starting point for a promising future. Undoubtedly they have managed to combine the most unexpected elements to make something new. You only can understand it when you listen to it.
